

Adjective-ed/ing(b-1)

Adjective-ed is always used with people or animals
Adjective-ing is generally used with things or situations

Please choose the correct adjective form for the sentences below:

ex.1) John was very embarrassed when he saw his zipper was down. (embarrass) ex.2) Watching the monkeys play at the zoo was amusing. (amuse)

1. Ted is very _____ to go to Disneyland. (excite)
2. Disneyland is very _____ for kids and adults. (excite)
3. It is really _____ teaching kids. (tire)
4. Jennifer was really _____ after playing with the kids. (tire)
5. I was so _____ during the movie that I fell asleep.
(bore – not be interesting)
6. It was really _____ when I fell down on the train.
(embarrass)
7. Trying to read Korean letters is _____. (confuse)
8. We were _____ by the magician's performance. (amaze)
9. The news of the murder was so _____. (shock)
10. I went to the opera. It was so _____! (bore)
11. Mom was _____ when I didn't come home on time. (worry)
12. I was so _____ trying to read the Tokyo subway map!
(confuse)
13. Everyone was _____ when our team lost our first game.
(surprise)
14. Bill was _____ when he didn't pass his math test. (shock)
15. Jogging in the hot sun today was so _____.
(exhaust – be super tiring)
16. Watching the men fight the forest fire was _____!
(amaze)
17. We were all _____ after our team lost the championship game. (depress – super sad)
18. The teacher's talk about aliens was _____. (interest)
19. This super hot weather is very _____. (depress)
20. The dog was very _____ to see its owner. (excite)