

It's getting HOTTER and HOTTER!!

This sheet deals with when two of the same adjectives are together to describe something as getting more and more of that adjective

Short adjectives: adjective-er and adjective-er

As summer nears, the days are getting hotter and hotter.

Long adjectives: more and more adjective

These missile launches make me more and more nervous.

Please fill in the blanks with the correct form of the adjective given:

1. The cost of living in Tokyo is getting more and more expensive. (expensive)
2. The longer I drove, the sleepier and sleepier I got. I became more and more worried about crashing. (sleepy/worried)
3. Little Tommy is growing taller and taller. (tall)
4. If you practice, you will get better and better. (good)
5. I got more and more irritated listening to his horrible speech that just got more and more racist! (irritated/racist)
6. Kim finally got friendlier and friendlier as we became closer and closer friends. (friendly/close)
7. The weather is getting worse and worse. Let's go home. (bad)
8. We all got more and more confused as the lecture got more and more complicated. (confused/complicated)
9. The movie got scarier and scarier. So I turned it off. (scary)
10. While they were talking about food, I just got hungrier and hungrier. (hungry)
11. The snow kept getting deeper and deeper, and it soon became more and more difficult to drive my car. (deep/difficult)
12. I'm getting old! My hair is getting greyer and grayer and my knees are getting more and more painful! (gray/painful)
13. Tommy is just getting better and better at the guitar! (good)
14. As the train delay became longer and longer, the subway platform got more and more crowded. (long/crowded)
15. The closer we got to Disneyland, the more and more excited the kids got. (excited)
16. When everyone laughed at me when I fell down, I got more and more embarrassed. (embarrassed)