

Come -vs- Go (1)

Firstly, you have to think of the point of view of the speaker!!

We generally say: Come “here” when the speaker's is talking about a place he/she is at.

Come to my house for dinner.

(The speaker's point of view is he/she is at their house.)

We generally say: Go “there” when the speaker is talking about a different place from where he/she is at.

Let's go and see a movie tonight.

(The speaker's point of view is that he/she is not at the movie theater.)

Fill in the blanks with “come” or “go” in the correct tense:

ex.) We went to see a movie at the new theater in the mall on Sunday.
