

Is it a VERB or an ADJECTIVE? (1)

Sometimes the past tense verb form and the adjective have the same spelling. This sheet will help you decide which one it is

Verb → When it is the verb, it's often the first verb of the sentence:

Work really tired me out today.

Amy cooked a turkey for Christmas dinner.

Adjective → When it is the adjective, it often has a form of be (am, is, was, were) before it or is connected to the noun after it:

I was really tired after work today.

Amy bought a cooked turkey for Christmas dinner.

The cooked turkey Amy bought was delicious.

Write whether the bold type word is the verb(V) or adjective(A) form:

ex.1) The worried student was afraid that he failed the test. (A) ex.2) The student worried that maybe he failed the test. (V)

1. The kids are so excited to go camping this weekend. ()

2. Bob's vampire costume scared all the kids on Halloween. ()

3. A girl lost her bag on the way home from school. ()

4. The girl's lost bag was eventually found in the park. ()

5. John married his high school sweetheart and they were married for 50 years until they divorced last summer. () () ()

6. I was so embarrassed when I fell down on the train. ()

7. Falling down on the train really embarrassed me. ()

8. Many people crowded onto the train as it was the last train of the night.

The train was so crowded that I couldn't breathe. () ()

9. The President's speech at the funeral moved everyone to tears. ()

10. We were all surprised to hear that Tina suddenly quit her job. ()

11. My friends surprised me with a secret birthday party. ()

12. Bob was depressed when his favorite team lost the championship. ()

13. The movie was so slow that it bored me to death. I've never been so bored in my life! () ()

14. The teacher's instructions confused us all. No one knew what to do. ()

15. I was quite disappointed to hear that I was traded to another team. ()

16. Some guy annoyed us during the show because he kept talking. ()

17. I was so annoyed by the guy's talking that I decided to leave early. ()