

Think something would be adjective-er (1)

I THOUGHT the movie WOULD BE funnier! (1)

This sheet deals with times when your image of something is different from what it actually is or was

Think (sth → something) would be (adj-er/more adj):

The comedy movie wasn't very interesting, I thought it would be funnier.

Rewrite the sentences using think (sth) would be (adj-er/more adj):

ex.) Tom Cruise was shorter than I imagined when I met him. (tall)

I thought Tom Cruise would be taller.

1. The driving test was easier than I imagined. (hard)

2. People from NY were meaner than I imagined. (nice)

3. This winter was warmer than I imagined. (cold)

4. Trains were more crowded during the holiday than I expected. (empty)

5. The huge red chili pepper was milder than I imagined. (spicy)

6. That horror movie was lighter and softer than I imagined. (bloody)

7. Iceland was warmer and sunnier than I imagined. (cold / cloudy)

8. The supermodel was not as cute as I imagined. (beautiful)

9. Dad wasn't so mad when he learned that I crashed his car. (angry)

10. The view from the mountaintop wasn't so great. (good)

11. That fancy restaurant was cheaper than we imagined. (expensive)

12. Typhoon #9 was weaker than everyone expected. (powerful)

13. The kids Kim babysat were quieter than she expected. (wild)

14. *The solar eclipse was less interesting than we imagined. (amazing)
