

I'm TOO lazy TO study! (1 Answers)

The pattern for this worksheet is that something is too adjective, so you are unable to do some action (verb).

ex.) You must be 21 to drink alcohol. Young Timmy is only 19.
Timmy is too young to drink alcohol .

Rewrite the sentences below using too adjective to verb:

1. The question was really difficult. No one could answer it.

The question was too difficult to answer .

2. It was really windy on Saturday, so we couldn't fly our kites.

It was too windy on Saturday to fly our kites .

**No more hints!** (Just find the adjective and main verb!)

3. I was really, really tired last night and couldn't cook dinner.

I was too tired last night to cook dinner .

4. Last Sunday was 45 degrees! We couldn't go outside and play.

Last Sunday was too hot to go outside and play .

5. I tried, but I was unable to pick up the really heavy box.

I tried, but the box was too heavy to pick up .

6. The morning train had so many people I couldn't even get on.

The morning train was too crowded to get on .

7. The movie is really scary! We can't go see it!

The movie is too scary to see .

8. The spicy Thai food burned my mouth, so I couldn't eat it.

The Thai food was too spicy to eat .

9. To buy tickets for the concert was $500! Wow! Expensive!

The tickets for the concert were too expensive to buy .

**A little more difficult!****

10. You must be 150cm to ride the coaster. I'm only 145cm!

I'm too short to ride the roller coaster .

11. I tried to eat the steak, but it was like hard rubber, so I couldn't.

I tried to eat the steak, but it was too hard to eat .

12. The neighbor's party was so noisy. It was impossible for me to sleep!

The neighbor's party was too noisy for me to sleep !

13. I wanted to sit on the bench, but it was just so very dirty.

I wanted to sit on the bench, but it was just too dirty to sit on .

14. My headache was really painful. I couldn't even think.

My headache was too painful to think .