

I'm TOO lazy TO study! (1)

The pattern for this worksheet is that something is too adjective, so you are unable to do some action (verb).

ex.) You must be 21 to drink alcohol. Young Timmy is only 19.
Timmy is too young to drink alcohol.

Rewrite the sentences below using too adjective to verb:

1. The question was really difficult. No one could answer it.

2. It was really windy on Saturday, so we couldn't fly our kites.

**No more hints!** (Just find the adjective and main verb!)

3. I was really, really tired last night and couldn't cook dinner.

4. Last Sunday was 45 degrees! We couldn't go outside and play.

5. I tried, but I was unable to pick up the really heavy box.

6. The morning train had so many people I couldn't even get on.

7. The movie is really scary! We can't go see it!

8. The spicy Thai food burned my mouth, so I couldn't eat it.

9. To buy tickets for the concert was $500! Wow! Expensive!

**A little more difficult!****

10. You must be 150cm to ride the coaster. I'm only 145cm!

11. I tried to eat the steak, but it was like hard rubber, so I couldn't.

12. The neighbor's party was so noisy. It was impossible for me to sleep!

13. I wanted to sit on the bench, but it was just so very dirty.

14. My headache was really painful. I couldn't even think.
