

Until (1)

I was up UNTIL 4am! (1)

This sheet deals with using until to mean the end of an action that had been continuing for some time

“I was up until 4am!” means my continuing action was being awake and that ended at 4am when I went to sleep.

Rewrite the following sentences using until and the verb given (watch tenses):

ex.) Henry finished work at 6:30. (work) Henry worked until 6:30.

1. Amy finishes school in June. (go to) _____
2. Bob finished fishing at 4 am. (be) _____
3. We finished playing golf when it got dark. (play golf)

4. Lisa moved away from her town when she was 18. (live in)

5. Kim will come back from Bali on Friday. (be in Bali)

6. I went to bed at 3 am after studying for my tests. (study)

7. Ed finally got married when he was 55 years old. (didn't get married)

Rewrite these sentences using until and a negative verb can't/couldn't:

ex.) When I find my car keys, I can go home.

I can't go home until I find my car keys.

1. When you finish your homework, you can go play.

2. When you are 150cm tall, you can ride the roller coaster.

3. When payday comes, I can buy some new shoes.

4. When your father gets home, we can start eating dinner.

5. On Christmas morning, you can open your presents.

6. When I finally saved enough money, I could buy a new guitar.

7. When John finally passed his driving test, he could get his license.
