

EIKEN Pre-2: Phrasal Expressions (7 Answers)

Choose the correct phrasal expression for the sentences below:

- On Christmas day, friends often _____ each other's houses to drop off presents and chat.
a. stand out b. speak up
- A: How did you overcome your weight problem?
B: I went on a big diet. I _____ from all sweets and junk food.
a. headed near c. came over
- Okinawa is famous _____ its beautiful beaches.
a. after b. to
- A: These are by far the worst cookies I've ever eaten!
B: I know. Sorry, I used salt instead of sugar on _____.
 b. purpose c. time
- The scientist spoke _____ on the problem of climate change.
a. along with c. at risk
- Bob, you failed 3 classes. In other _____, you can't graduate!
 b. assistants c. towns
- A: I'm so sad that our school trip was called off.
B: Yeah, I was really looking _____ to going to Kyoto.
 b. around c. over
- After the earthquake, all trains were stopped, so I walked all the _____ home.
a. time b. roads
- A: Are you going to _____ in the school musical, Tina?
B: Yes. We are getting ready for it right now.
a. sleep c. study
- John refuses to wear a jacket, in _____ of the cold weather.
 b. view c. turn
- Ted has a strong _____ to peanuts. He has to be careful about food.
a. friendship b. spicy
- A: I have a little work to do, then I'll _____ to the party.
B: Great! Could you pick up some soda before coming here?
 b. break up c. turn down
- I'm really _____ all this rain. I want to see the sun!!
a. fun with c. an average
- A: It's a long drive to the ski lodge. Don't get lost!
B: Ok. If I follow the _____, I think we'll be fine.
a. clock b. stars