

“For” Phrasal Verbs (2)

Choose the answer with the closest meaning to the for - phrasal verb:

1. Gina is almost 50 years old, but she could easily pass for 35!
be seen as                      date younger people                      look her age
2. Our teacher won't stand for any talking in his class.
repeat/say again                      only sits at a desk                      tolerate/endure
3. After the tornado, all the kids in the park were accounted for.
location was known                      were missing                      were panicking
4. It's been a long day! I could really go for a nice hot bath.
order/rent                      accept/enjoy                      want to travel
5. I want you to know that I am here for you if there's a problem.
be there soon                      available if needed                      next to you
6. My lawyer will speak for me regarding this useless law suit.
can't help                      talk with me                      talk in my place
7. This old house is crying out for cleaning and a new paint job!
makes lots of noise                      really needs                      is very sad
8. Ellen is thinking about running for mayor of Los Angeles.
being a candidate                      joining a marathon                      escaping from
9. So many people fell for that horrible pyramid scam.
were injured                      were in love                      believed 10. Welcome to my store. What can I do for you?
assist/help you with                      buy from you                      ask you about 11. Where have you been? I've been looking everywhere for you!
waiting                      watching                      searching
12. Someone needs to answer for the missing cash from the safe!
help find                      take responsibility                      get the phone 13. Careful. Jake has it in for you for telling the police he stole the money.
wants revenge                      has a present                      wants to thank
14. I love how Mike sticks up for his younger brother at school.
treats badly                      protects/defends                      steals from
15. Police say they are coming for the man who killed the officer.
know nothing about                      have arrested                      searching to catch