

“For” Phrasal Verbs (3)

Choose the answer with the closest meaning to the for - phrasal verb:

1. I always like to cheer for the underdogs or weaker teams.
shout at                      root against                      support
2. Sorry, we're all out of the fish. You'll have to settle for chicken.
accept a non-1st choice      pay extra for                      choose another
3. Are you taking charity donations? Put me down for $100!
give me                      record my offer                      insult me
4. Jim's angling for a promotion by bribing our boss with cigars.
avoiding work                      indirectly trying to get                      going fishing
5. In this crazy heat wave, many are heading for the local beaches.
going to a place                      blocked from going                      dreaming about
6. I did my homework, but forgot it! My mom can vouch for me!
bring it to me                      confirm my story                      help me
7. The abandoned baby bear was forced to fend for itself.
become a pet                      find a new mom                      take care of itself
8. Our guitarist was sick, so we got another one to sit in for him.
take a break                      substitute                      go and get
9. Only two people could win the award, so I really went for it!
tried hard to get                      quickly gave up                      didn't try hard
10. Our taxi driver tried to take us for a ride by going the long way!
pick us up                      drive somewhere                      cheat/trick us 11. It's so cold out! Why don't you come in for a bite & get warm?
go to get something                      try to find                      enter to get something
12. Most mothers say they would easily die for their children.
give their life                      be excited to have                      try to kill 13. Why didn't you stand up for me when Ben called me a thief?!
tell me first                      stop sitting                      defend/support me
14. Can Sue enter Harvard!?! Her test scores speak for themselves!
are a secret                      don't need explaining                      are not so good
15. Your getting a promotion at work calls for a big celebration!
demands/requests                      must contact everyone                      isn't special