

“For” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (2) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the For Phrasal Verbs 2 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

do could go pass answer cry out

1. It's so hot! I really could go for a nice icy cold beer right now.
2. Your car's engine sounds terrible. It's crying out for a tune up!
3. With my dark skin color, I can pass for Latin, Italian or African.
4. The CEO has to answer for the company's failure to make a profit.
5. "Ask not what your country can do for you! Ask what you..."

have it in fall account speak stick up

1. I hope that I'm too smart to fall for any kind of scam, like Tom.
2. Big kids are always hitting Timmy. He needs someone to stick up for him!
3. The press secretary speaks for the President at daily conferences.
4. All the stolen art was accounted for after the thieves were caught.
5. We all think Don has it in for you since you were promoted over him.

be here run look come stand

1. I looked for my keys everywhere, then found them in the fridge!
2. Sally wants to run for school president, but isn't sure if she can win. She's not that popular.
3. My girlfriend won't stand for me talking to any other girls.
4. We're sorry about the loss of your husband. Just know that everyone is here for you if you need anything.
5. Ed had a fight with a guy and now the guy's friends are coming for Ed.

run look do stand fall

1. Many candidates running for office in Mexico are killed by gangs.
2. I've been looking for a new apartment, but nothing's available.
3. We can't believe Grandma fell for the "It's me! It's me!" scam!
4. I could never stand for the horrible way Jim treats his wife.
5. Welcome! What can I do for ya? Looking for anything in particular?