

“For” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (3) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the For Phrasal Verbs 3 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

head sit in take speak settle

1. To avoid traffic, we're going to head for the ski lodge at 4 am.
2. Amy only wants to marry a rich guy, and won't settle for anything less.
3. The band asked me to sit in for their drummer because he was sick.
4. iPhone sales speak for themselves! It's the most popular in the world.
5. The used car salesman tried to take me for a fool by selling me an old piece of junk car!

cheer vouch angle die call

1. You passed your test! This calls for a special celebration dinner!
2. Jenny really is old enough to drink, I can vouch for her.
3. Christians believe that Jesus Christ died for our sins.
4. Many fans travel very far to cheer for their favorite football team.
5. The politician angled for votes by secretly promising favors.

come in go stand up fend put me down

1. You've almost cleared the whole game! Go for it and get to the end!
2. I just came in for one drink and ended up staying all night.
3. If you're getting all the ski lift tickets, put me down for 4 tickets.
4. A good politician stands up for the rights of the poor and needy.
5. Young runaways on city streets have to fend for themselves to survive.

head settle cheer call stand up

1. Since we lost the final game, we had to settle for 2nd place.
2. Mary's boss stood up for her when the angry customer began yelling.
3. Thousands of people cheered for the returning army after the war.
4. Just 3 hours left of work. Then I'm headed/ing for Bali for a vacation!
5. The judge called for silence in his courtroom after people got noisy.