

“Out” Phrasal Verbs (4)

Choose the answer with the closest meaning to the out - phrasal verb:

1. Julie's been stressing out like crazy over her wedding party.
very excited      extremely worrying about      getting angry
2. Ben said to knock myself out when I asked if I could get a beer.
punch myself      go ahead and do      yes, only if I pay
3. Karen's dad caught her making out in the backseat of a car.
stealing things      hiding      heavily kissing
4. Ted frustratedly stormed out of the office and slammed the door.
angrily & quickly walked      avoided bad weather      rushed
5. I'm going to go work out for a few hours before dinner.
go to the office      exercise      be successful at
6. The staff asked me to fill out a questionnaire about the movie.
order food      do an interview      answer questions in a form
7. When I call out your name, raise your hand and say “Here”.
say aloud      telephone you      ring you
8. The boy grew out of all his clothes over the summer holiday.
threw away      got all new      too big/old to wear/do
9. Sorry, but Mr. Jones has stepped out for a bit. Please call back.
left a place for a while      quit suddenly      took a walk
10. Tom asked me if he could take out my ex-girlfriend!!
bring home      go on a date      murder
11. As a foreigner, Ed really stands out in a group of Japanese men.
can't sit Japanese style      can't enter      easily noticeable
12. Jerry's so rich that he can eat out for every meal.
go to a restaurant      eat a lot      treat everyone
13. Let's check out that new restaurant on 6th Street downtown.
try to avoid      go and see/try      quickly leave
14. Bob and Sara have been going out for 2 months!
dating      traveling      missing
15. Tim's town made a big deal out of him winning a bronze medal.
had no interest      barely noticed      gave great importance to