

“Out” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (1) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Out Phrasal Verbs 1 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

make                      yell                      walk                      drop                      pass

1. Brenda twisted her ankle and had to drop out of the marathon.
2. A thousand workers are threatening to walk out if salaries are cut.
3. I can barely make out what Joe wrote! His writing is so bad!
4. The drunk driver passed out at the wheel and caused the accident.
5. Our teacher got angry because I kept yelling out the test answers.

eke                      turn                      toss                      back                      find

1. We need a change! Let's toss out our old furniture and get all new stuff!
2. Steve recently found out that he's gonna be a father!
3. It's tough to eke out a living on a teacher's low salary.
4. It turns/turned out that Ed's beautiful wife only wanted his money.
5. Henry's fiancé backed out of the wedding at the last minute.

order                      pop                      burn                      chicken                      veg

1. I'm so tired that I'm just gonna veg out on the sofa all weekend.
2. The car popped out of nowhere and crashed into us.
3. I chickened out of jumping off the 2nd story roof into the pool.
4. Let's stay home and order out for dinner tonight.
5. You'd better start working less before you get burnt out!

turn                      find                      make                      walk                      drop

1. Check the net and find out what's playing at the movie theater.
2. The candidate dropped out of the Presidential race due to a scandal.
3. I thought the opera would be boring, but it turned out to be amazing.
4. I'm amazed you can make out anything driving in this thick fog!
5. If I don't get the promotion, I'm gonna walk out and never come back!