

“Out” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (2) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Out Phrasal Verbs 2 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

hang                      leave                      hand                      move                      work

1. This is Emily's 5th marriage!! I really hope this one works out!
2. We plan to hang out at the beach and swim all summer this year.
3. Someone left out the sugar and now we have ants everywhere!
4. The stadium handed out free hats to the first 500 fans who came.
5. My girlfriend moved out and got her own apartment after our fight.

---

throw                      run                      die                      cut                      kick

1. My mom accidentally threw out my baseball card collection!
2. Bob's proud mom cut out his sports newspaper stories for a scrapbook.
3. A player was kicked out of her basketball club for match-fixing.
4. I always seem to run out of time before I can finish my tests!
5. The dinosaurs died out millions of years ago.

---

figure                      pick                      freak                      sell                      put

1. Star Wars Episode 10 tickets sold out so quickly. It was amazing!
  2. Everything looks so delicious! It's hard to pick out just one dish!
  3. Dad freaked out when he found out that I crashed our car.
  4. The fire extinguisher wasn't strong enough to put out the kitchen fire!
  5. I still can't figure out how to use my air conditioner's remote control!
- =====

run                      move                      figure                      hang                      work

1. The weather was terrible, so I just hung out at home all weekend.
2. I completely ran out of money by the 3rd day of my trip to Spain.
3. If this new business deal works out, I'll make a ton of money!
4. When you figure out what you want to eat for dinner, text me.
5. We are finally moving out of our tiny office and into a larger one.