

“Out” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (3) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Out Phrasal Verbs 3 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

keep watch sneak bring get

1. Mark, how did you get out of having to attend the meeting?
2. Pam told her younger sister to keep out of her bedroom.
3. That lipstick really brings out your beautiful smile.
4. You need to definitely watch out for pickpockets in Las Vegas!
5. We snuck out of school and hung out at the beach all day yesterday!

break head ask luck phase

1. Our school phased out the old textbooks and got every student iPads.
2. It looks like rain. Let's head out (for home) before the storm comes.
3. Jeff lucked out and got the last concert tickets before they sold out!
4. Police can't figure out how 3 dangerous men broke out of the prison.
5. I chickened out right before I could ask the cheerleader out on a date.

air straighten pig roll cut

1. I forgot to air out my gym clothes last night and now they stink!
2. Sue is not cut out to be a secretary. It turns out that she can't even type!
3. I pigged out at the buffet and was too full to do anything but veg out.
4. Mom had to straighten out the argument between my two sisters.
5. Apple finally rolled out their newest iPhone after a 6-month delay.

luck head get straighten watch

1. I have some things to do here, so I'll head out after and meet you there.
2. You should watch out. It's easy to get addicted to that pain medicine.
3. Greg always seems to luck out with things!! His wife, job, house....
4. Our lawyer was able to straighten things out with the police for Ben.
5. I wish I could get out of going to Tina's, but it's too late to back out.