

“Over” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (2) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Over Phrasal Verbs 2 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

make                      walk                      pour                      turn                      head

1. What time are you heading over to the store? Can I come too?
2. Steve should leave his wife because she just walks all over him!
3. If Lisa got herself made over, she'd be really beautiful.
4. Charlie was using drugs, so his dad turned him over to the police.
5. I poured over all my photos looking for a good one of my parents.

---

run                      do                      sleep                      roll                      make a big fuss

1. The meeting ran over by 2 hours and I missed my last train home!
2. It's too stormy to drive home. Sleep over here and leave tomorrow.
3. Jill's family made a big fuss over her getting into Harvard.
4. My teacher said my homework was all wrong and made me do it all over.
5. Are we just going to roll over and let this team beat us?!

---

go                      start                      blow                      get                      chew

1. I really hate firing staff, but let me call Bob and get it over with.
2. The comedians joke about gay people didn't go over well.
3. Why don't you chew over my offer this weekend and give me an answer Monday.
4. Your answer is completely wrong. You'll have to start all over.
5. No one could go out until the snow storm blew over.

---

turn                      run                      do                      get                      head

1. There's a big reward for whoever turns over the thief.
2. Billy accidentally smashed his science project when he dropped it and had to do it all over again.
3. We were heading over to the concert when we had our car accident.
4. Kids hate injections, so it's great when docs get it over with quickly.
5. The Oscars movie awards show always runs over their scheduled time.