

“Over” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (4) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Over Phrasal Verbs 4 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

talk                      topple                      fight                      boil                      work

1. Two men began fighting over a parking space at the shopping mall.
2. They should've talked over the problem before getting violent.
3. The minor parking spot issue boiled over into a violent fight.
4. One man really worked over the other and put him in the hospital.
5. During the fight, they smashed into a group of people standing in a line and toppled them over.

---

sign                      pull                      go                      blow                      carry

1. I was speeding and was told to pull over by the officer.
2. The wind gusts blew over the plants on my balcony.
3. I'm going over to the library to study. See you later.
4. My unused wi-fi gigabytes carry over to the next month every month.
5. John signed over his property to the bank to avoid going bankrupt.

---

check                      glance                      look                      hold                      stop

1. I checked over your essay and found some major mistakes.
2. You should closely look over the clothes you buy from outlets.
3. Our flight was held over while they de-iced the wings.
4. I was afraid to even glance over at the dangerous-looking men.
5. On the way to the Grand Canyon, we stopped over in Las Vegas.

---

talk                      pull                      go                      fight                      glance

1. I got nervous when a gorgeous girl kept glancing over at me and smiling.
2. My teacher and I talked over my options for universities.
3. Are you going over to Eric's house to watch the big game?
4. Japan and China have been fighting over those tiny islands for years.
5. My car was making funny noises while driving, so I pulled over to check.