

“Up” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (1) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Up Phrasal Verbs 1 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

bring                      hang                      show                      hurry                      throw

1. If we don't hurry up, we're gonna miss our flight to Los Angeles!
2. Ed was throwing up for 2 days from the oyster food poisoning he got.
3. It's hard to bring up kids on a low teacher's salary.
4. I can't believe Sue's ex-boyfriend actually showed up at her wedding!
5. Someone keeps calling my house and hanging up!! I'm a little scared.

---

come                      give                      keep                      look                      put

1. Matt's doctor said he has to give up drinking and smoking.
2. My HW is too hard! I have to look up every word in a dictionary!
3. Jenn came up with a great plan to help us sell our charity cookies.
4. I really just can't put up with my horrible boss any longer!
5. Rich has got long legs! It's hard to keep up with him when walking.

---

break                      sneak                      stand                      screw                      take

1. After John retired, his wife demanded that he take up a new hobby.
2. I'm shocked to hear that Pam and Jim broke up! They seemed so happy together.
3. The cat tried to sneak up on the bird that had landed on the ground.
4. Gary took a big chance getting you this job! Don't screw it up!!
5. You know, if you stand up to a bully, he often runs away!

---

give                      hurry                      break                      show                      sneak

1. Wow! Just for showing up at the seminar, I got a free handbag!
2. The teacher broke the huge class up into 5 smaller groups.
3. I told Kim she had to give up smoking if she wanted to date me.
4. Oh no! Our anniversary snuck up on me! I didn't get Sue a present!
5. Hurry up! It's getting late and I want to get home before it gets dark!