

“Up” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (3) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Up Phrasal Verbs 3 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

grow lock blow pass work

1. A roadside bomb blew up in Iraq, injuring 6 soldiers.
2. Johnathan acts like a child! He really needs to grow up!
3. Wow! You really work up an appetite doing Zumba! I'm starving!
4. Those guys should be locked up for ganging up on that poor man!
5. Mom passed up a chance to go to Hawaii because she's afraid to fly.

wind make whip come dig

1. It looks like Billy made up the whole story about being beaten up.
2. It took me hours in the attic to dig up my old baseball card collection.
3. Give up your dream of a perfect girl, or you'll wind up all alone!
4. The charge for your wedding party comes up to $58 per person.
5. If you don't want to heat up this food, I can whip up something for ya.

back run cover crack tear

1. I tried to back up the long truck to park it and hit a telephone pole.
2. The comedian had everyone just cracking up during his whole show.
3. I wasn't the only man who teared up at the end of the sad movie.
4. The terrible customers ran up a huge bar bill, then refused to pay!
5. Ron covered up the fact that he'd lost all his family's money gambling.

pass grow run make wind

1. The false story about the actor being gay was made up by some reporter.
2. I'm lucky I passed up the chance to work at that shop. It's closed now.
3. I went to the store for one thing, but wound up buying a lot of stuff!
4. The director ran up huge expenses filming his science fiction movie.
5. I can't wait till I grow up and can get my own job and apartment.