

“Up” Phrasal Verbs Exercises (5) Answers

Fill in the blank spaces with the correct verb to complete the phrasal verb:
(Refer to the Up Phrasal Verbs 5 worksheet for phrasal verb meanings)
(be careful of correct tenses!!)

team shut wrap come sober

1. Some people kept talking during the movie and wouldn't shut up!
2. If the topic of divorce comes up, don't say anything about my divorce!
3. Many young students have teamed up to protest gun violence in the US.
4. After drinking, I had 6 cups of coffee to try and sober up before driving home.
5. They wrapped up the Olympics with a beautiful closing ceremony.

bang fess ease make drive

1. The couple promised to always quickly make up after an argument.
2. All the kids ran away when the police car drove up.
3. Johnny finally fessed up and admitted he broke the car window.
4. I got banged up a bit when I crashed my car into a tree last week.
5. You should ease up on Bill. He's trying his hardest to do well.

wash pick turn slip add

1. You're so dirty from playing outside! Go wash up before dinner!
2. Jeff is so charismatic! It's really easy for him to pick up women!
3. The cost of cheap phone apps really adds up after you start buying them.
4. Our dog Spot ran away a week ago and turned up about 100 km away.
5. We have to get this product finished perfectly! So, no one slip up!

come shut turn ease make

1. You've been drinking too much lately. Ease up a bit on the alcohol!
2. Whenever money comes up, Bill always reminds us how rich he is!
3. After many years apart, the band members made up and played again.
4. Kim lost her iPhone at the park. She really hopes it turns up soon.
5. I wish my noisy neighbors would shut up so I could get some sleep!