

Another -vs- Other (1 Answers)

Another refers to a different thing or group of items, people, etc.

(ex.1) or it means one more/one different of something(ex.2) ex 1: I have many friends. One friend is a doctor, another is a lawyer and another is a police officer.

ex 2: I finished my beer. Can I have another one?

*Single countable nouns follow another!!

Other refers to different members of one same original group.

ex: Some people like big dogs and other people like small dogs.

(People is the original group: Some people-Other people)

Other is followed by a plural noun (pens) or uncountable nouns.

1. I dropped my ice cream cone. Can I have another one, please?
2. I got a box of chocolates for Valentine's Day and a few pieces were good, but the other pieces were bad.
3. I will take these old photos and you can have the other ones.
4. I only have one guitar, but I'd like to get another one.
5. From the group of lost hikers, two were rescued, but the other hikers are still missing.
6. Some people like the sea, while other people like the mountains.
7. I didn't like where the sofa was, so I moved it to another place.
8. Sorry, but I can't meet you for lunch today. Can we do it another time?
9. It's very windy today, so let's have our picnic another day.
10. The tornado only damaged the bank and post office. All the other buildings are ok. I hope another tornado never comes!
11. Stop coming closer! If you take another step I will shoot you!
12. Ten students passed the test, while the other students didn't.
13. I've been working so hard. If I have to do another day of overtime work I will just die! Can't one of the other staff work overtime instead?
14. Kim is having a great Olympic games. She just set another world record.
15. Steve already has 10 home runs. The other players don't have any!
16. Beth liked Mr. King's 3rd book, so she decided to read another book.
17. ...and let me tell you another thing! If I ever catch you cheating on a test again, I'll kick you out of school. You'll have to go to another school.
18. It rained Monday to Thursday last week. The other days were nice and sunny.
19. Half of the fans cheered for the home team, but the other half cheered for the visiting team.
20. First, one car crashed into the wall, and then another and another and another. Luckily, the other cars were able to stop though.