

Another, Other and Others (1 Answers)

Another refers to:

1. one different thing or group of items, people, etc.

I have many friends. One friend is a doctor, another is a lawyer and another is a police officer.

2. one more of something or one more of the same kind

I finished the cookie. Can I have another one?

*Single nouns follow another!!

Other & Others refer to different members of the same original group.

ex: Some people like big dogs and other people/others like small dogs.

(People is the original group: Other people/Others are different members)

*Other is followed by a plural noun (pens) or uncountable noun.

*Others has no noun following it.

1. It's really windy today, so let's have our picnic another day.
2. I will take these CDs and you can have the other CDs.
3. I will take these CDs and you can have the others.
4. The officer said, "Don't take another step or I will shoot you!"
5. Two of the lost hikers were rescued, but the others are still missing.
6. I still only have one guitar, but I'd really like to get another one.
7. It rained heavily Monday to Thursday last week, but the other days were nice and sunny. I hope we get some other nice days before winter.
8. The angry teacher said to her bad student, "...and let me tell you another thing! If I ever catch you cheating again, you'll be kicked out of school and I'll make sure no other schools accept you!"
9. Some people like the sea, while others like the mountains.
10. There are times when my English is great, but other times I can't speak at all. Maybe I need to find another teacher!
11. I dropped my ice cream cone. Can I have another one, please?
12. I got Valentine's chocolates and a few pieces were good, but the others were not so good. Next time I want chocolates from another shop.
13. In the election 80% of the students voted for me, with the others voting for my opponent.
14. I need a vacation! If I have to do another day of work I'll just die!
15. First, one car crashed into the wall, and then another and another.
The other cars on the highway were able to stop though.
16. Sometimes Sue is very kind, and other times she is really mean.
17. Ten students passed the test, while the others didn't.
18. Sorry, but I can't meet you for lunch today. Can we do it another time?
19. Two dogs in the shop window were excited, but the others were asleep.
20. If you don't like this store, there many are other stores we can check.