

COMMON MISTAKES (1 Answers)

Choose -vs- Choice / Convenient -vs- Convenience / Safe -vs- Safety
(v) (n) (adj) (n) (adj) (n)

Use choose or choice in the spaces below:

1. Between chicken and fish, I always choose fish!
2. It was my choice to move to Japan, and it was a great choice !
3. Ed had to walk to work. His car wouldn't start, so he had no choice .
4. If they ask me which place I'd prefer, I'll choose Hawaii for our trip.
5. It's really hard for Kim to make a choice every time we go to that shop.
6. If you choose to work here, you must wear a suit and tie every day.
7. See a movie or just go bowling? Hmm... It's your choice .
8. I really hope they choose me to be on their baseball team this year.

Use convenient or convenience in the spaces below:

1. Having a 7-11 in my building is very convenient . Also, it is my favorite convenience store!
2. I think it's very inconvenient to have a car in Tokyo. It's very expensive and it isn't convenient to find a place to park. The convenience of the trains makes having a car not necessary.
3. My new backpack has so many convenient pockets. It's great!
4. Our elevator is broken! It's such an inconvenience having to use the stairs. I really understand now how convenient elevators are.
5. The convenience of Haneda Airport makes getting downtown so easy.
6. Grand Central is quite a convenient station, with so many train lines there.
7. For everyone's convenience , we've set up extra voting booths.
8. I'd like to have a quick meeting. What time is convenient for you?

Use safe or safety in the spaces below:

1. Japan is a very safe country. I wish America was as safe !
2. I worry about the safety of going out to restaurants in this pandemic.
3. We really care about the safety of your children, so we make our car seats for kids as safe as possible.
4. Security guards walk the streets to promote the safety of this area.
5. The new corona vaccine is very safe and effective against the virus.
6. A shark was near the beach earlier, but it's safe to go swimming now.
7. The safety of our gym members is important to us, so we inspect our machines every day to make sure they are safe .