

COMMON MISTAKES (4 Answers)

Common -vs- Popular / Put on -vs- Wear / Good -vs- Well
(happening a lot) (liked by many) (action) (no action) (with a noun) (with a verb)
(Good or bad) (usually good) (just on your body)

Use common or popular in the spaces below:

1. The flu (influenza) is very common in winter.
2. Misusing “early” and “fast” is a common mistake for ESL learners.
3. The iPhone 14 is probably the most popular of the iPhone series.
4. Cedar pollen is a common cause of spring hay fever.
5. The bob-cut is a popular hairstyle among young women.
6. Highballs have become popular cocktails in recent years.
7. Rebecca and I get along so well because we have so many common interests. We both like the popular game Fortnite.
8. Wearing masks is quite common in Japan, but not in Europe.

Use put on or wear in the spaces below:

1. Ms. Smith and Ms. Jones wear too much perfume every day!
2. It’s getting cold out. Go in the house and put on a jacket.
3. This is a mixed men and women hot spring, so you must wear a swimsuit in the bath. Please put on yours before leaving the locker room.
4. Most Westerners put on their shoes in their bedrooms, and then wear their shoes when walking around the house. Japanese never wear shoes in the house, but put on their shoes at the front door to go out.
5. Joe has bad eyes and has to wear very thick glasses.
6. I really love to wear very scary costumes for Halloween.
7. Billy, that shirt is dirty! Go take it off and put on a clean one!

Use good or well in the spaces below:

1. Charlie studied really hard, but didn’t do well on his tests.
2. Charlie studied really hard, but didn’t get good scores on his tests.
3. Kim’s husband is a really good cook! I wish I could cook so well.
4. Tim and Tom are quite good friends. They know each other very well.
5. I was sick last week, but I’m doing well now. Back to 100%
6. Jenn did a good job decorating for the party. She’s a good decorator.
7. Wow! I wasn’t aware that you sang so well. I’m a good singer, but you are amazing!
8. The art exhibition was well organized. Everyone had a good time.