

COMMON MISTAKES (2)

Different -vs- Difference / In -vs- On / Danger -vs- Dangerous (adj) (n) (n) (adj)

Use different or difference in the spaces below:

1. American sushi is completely _____ from Japanese sushi.
2. The Avengers was sold out, so we ended up seeing a _____ movie.
3. Is there a _____ between McDonald's and Burger King's hamburgers?
4. We tried 3 _____ kinds of headphones and couldn't tell if there was any _____ between them.
5. Living in Tokyo is so _____ than I imagined. The _____ between LA and Tokyo is so huge. The food is _____. The people are _____. The only _____ that isn't a big surprise is the weather, which is completely _____.
6. Just adding flowers to our office made a big _____. There is such a _____ atmosphere here with the flowers.

Use in or on in the spaces below:

1. America's Independence Day is _____ July 4th.
2. The Olympics will be _____ LA _____ 2028, with the opening ceremony _____ the evening _____ July 14th. I'll watch it _____ TV.
3. I accidentally got _____ the wrong bus, so I jumped off and got _____ a taxi, which dropped me off _____ front of your house _____ Friday.
4. Tom was born _____ France _____ a small Island.
5. Becky got _____ her motorcycle _____ her garage, put _____ her rain coat and rode out _____ the rain
6. I thought I'd put my phone _____ the counter, but it was _____ the fridge!

Use danger or dangerous in the spaces below:

1. It's so _____ to use your smartphone while driving. Many people don't realize the _____ of doing this.
2. Skydiving is a _____ sport. There is a lot of _____ in jumping out of a perfectly safe airplane.
3. Some parts of America are really _____, and some are safe.
4. "No Swimming!" There's a _____ of alligators in this pond.
5. Many animal species are in _____ of going extinct.
6. Don't run with scissors! It's incredibly _____!
7. John's operation went well, but he's still not out of _____.