

Except for (1)

Everyone had fun EXCEPT (FOR) me!

Except (for) is used when you want to talk about a whole group minus 1 or a few members

Everyone at the party had fun except for me. This means that all of the people at the party had fun, but I didn't.

Rewrite these sentences using except for:

ex.) I like all sushi, but not crab brains.

I like all sushi except for crab brains .

1. It rained every day last week, but not on Tuesday.

2. Naoki passed all of his exams, but he couldn't pass English.

3. All of Zack's friends came to his party, but Kim and Sue couldn't.

4. Every dish on the menu had meat, but one salad didn't.

5. All my coworkers have the flu, but luckily, I don't.

6. We won every game this season, but lost the championship one.

7. I really liked the movie, but I hated the ending!

8. The tornado destroyed everything. Only the school was OK.

9. Lisa's visited every continent, but hasn't been to Antarctica.

10. I have read all of King's books, but not his newest one.

11. Bob loves all music, but he doesn't like classical music.

12. Gina likes all of her coworkers, but not Dan. He's not friendly.

13. Pauline cooked the whole Christmas dinner, but bought the dessert.

14. This 1957 Chevy is all original. Only the paint job is new.
