

I FEEL LIKE Ordering a pizza tonight! (2 Answers)

This sheet deals with when your body/mind wants or doesn't want to do something

You can: Feel adjective so you feel like verbing/noun

I feel tired, so I don't feel like going out tonight.

(I don't feel like going out tonight because I feel tired.)

Rewrite these sentences using feel adjective, so feel like / don't feel like as in the example:

ex.1) (tired – so I don't want to go out tonight)

I feel tired, so I don't feel like going out tonight .

1. (lucky – so I want to gamble at a casino)

I feel lucky, so I feel like gambling at a casino .

2. (dizzy – so I want to lie down for a while)

I feel dizzy, so I feel like lying down for a while .

3. Today is payday!! (rich – so I want to go shopping)

I feel rich, so I feel like going shopping .

4. (really sick – but I don't want to see a doctor)

I feel really sick, but I don't feel like seeing a doctor .

5. (amazing today – so I want to go hiking or something)

I feel amazing today, so I feel like going hiking or something .

6. (quite lazy – so I want to lay on the sofa and watch TV all day)

I feel quite lazy, so I feel like laying on the sofa a watching TV all day.

7. (nervous – because I don't want to hear my test score)

I feel nervous because I don't feel like hearing my test score .

8. Do you (adventurous? – Do you want to hike Mt. Fuji?)

Do you feel adventurous? Do you feel like hiking Mt. Fuji ?

9. (a little sleepy – so I want to take a nap)

I feel a little sleepy, so I feel like taking a nap .

10. Do you (hot? – Do you want to go swimming?)

Do you feel hot? Do you feel like going swimming ?

11. Do you (hungry? – Do you want to eat something?)

Do you feel hungry? Do you feel like eating something ?

12. When I (sad, I don't want to do anything but sleep)

When I feel sad, I don't feel like doing anything but sleep(ing) .

13. When you feel lazy, what do you usually feel like doing?

Ex.) When I feel lazy, I usually feel like watching old movies all day.