

Few -vs- Little (Answers)

Few is always used with countable nouns

There were few people at the shop's grand opening party.

Little is always used with uncountable nouns

I had little money left after my vacation to Tahiti.

Little is also used with the size of things, and not how many

Many girls like little dogs. (This is about their small size)

1. There are only a few blossom petals left on the cherry trees.
2. The President answered few questions after his speech.
3. We were late getting to the airport, so we had little time to relax before our flight. I was only able to buy a few souvenirs.
4. Very few wild animals make good pets.
5. I need to spend as little money as possible until payday.
6. My iPhone battery has very little power left.
7. There are few girls who really like bloody horror movies.
8. With little rain in California, there's little water to drink.
9. The lazy teacher gives very little homework, but it is very difficult, so few students actually can do the homework.
10. There are few fish in the sea because we overfish our oceans.
11. There are very few times when I make mistakes!!
12. I went home early because there was little work to do at the office.
13. Susie likes very few kinds of brand-name clothes and bags.
14. My computer has little memory left. I need a new one, but very few new computers are cheap enough for me.
15. Sam has few friends and is sometimes lonely, but she spends little time trying to meet new people.
16. Mom always has too little energy after work to cook dinner.
17. Too few men are gentlemen these days. They have little interest in treating women nicely.
18. Bob has gotten old! He has very little hair left on his head!
19. Few super diets actually make you lose weight.
20. Thanks to electric cars, our city has little pollution and little noise.