

FOR -vs- TO (1)

You can: verb TO verb
verb FOR a noun

John works to get money.
John works for money.

Go/Come: TO place
FOR something

Let's go to the movies!
He came home for the wedding.

Circle the best answer to complete the sentence:

1. We all went for (a drink / drinking) after work.
2. Friends came to my house (to / for) pizza and (to / for) watch the game.
3. Jennifer went (to the store / for the store) and bought some milk.
4. I am going (to / for) the theater (to see / for to see) a movie.
5. Bob loves (to coming / coming / for coming) to Japan for good sushi.
6. Ed went (to / for) the store (buy / for buying / to buy) a new CD.
7. Many people go to Washington (for / to / seeing) the cherry blossoms.
8. I'll go home (doing / for do / to do / to doing) some laundry.
9. Sue used her cell phone (to make / for make / for making) a phone call.
10. I drove my car (for the countryside / to the countryside) to relax.
11. My parents gave me a present (to my birthday / for my birthday).
12. We go to that Italian restaurant (for / to) the all-you-can-eat buffet.
13. I'm going to a wedding, so I need to buy a new dress (to it / for it).
14. Steve exercises every day (for stay healthy / to stay healthy).
15. Kelly exercises every day (for her health / to her health).
16. Henry asked his girlfriend (to / for) marry him.
17. Susie went to America for 1 year (for study abroad / to study abroad).
18. Nick went (to home / for home / home) to get clothes (to / for) the party.