

I'm Having my house Painted!!(1)

This sheet is for when you “have something done”.

To have something done means to have someone else do the work.

“I'm having my house painted!” says that I am NOT doing the painting, but someone else is doing it for me.

“I'm painting my house!” generally means that I AM DOING the painting myself.

Rewrite these sentences to say that someone else is doing the work:

1. My car broke down and I took it to the shop to be repaired.

My car broke down and I had it repaired .

2. Judy went to a hair salon and they cut her hair.

Judy went to a hair salon and had her hair cut .

3. I took my daughter to a shop and they pierced her ears.

I took my daughter to a shop and had her ears pierced .

4. Cathy went to the dentist and he pulled out her wisdom teeth.

Cathy went to the dentist and had her wisdom teeth pulled out.

5. I went to a gas station and they washed my car.

I went to a gas station and had my car washed .

6. Bob stopped at a stand and they shined his shoes.

Bob stopped at a stand and had his shoes shined .

7. Denise went to a plastic surgeon and he changed her nose.

Denise went to a plastic surgeon and had her nose changed .

8. Barb went to a nail salon and they did her nails.

Barb went to a nail salon and had her nails done .

9. Mark went to a tattoo parlor and they changed his old tattoo.

Mark went to a tattoo parlor and had his old tattoo changed .

10. The family went to a photographer and he took their photos.

The family went to a photographer and had their photos taken.

11.*Frank stole from the mafia and they paid someone to kill him.

Frank stole from the mafia and they had him killed .

12. We went to a famous artist and he drew our family portrait.

We went to a famous artist and had our family portrait drawn.

13. Sam and Sue used a service and they performed their wedding on a beach cliff in Hawaii.

Sam and Sue used a service and had their wedding performed on a beach cliff in Hawaii .