

I'm Having my house Painted!!(2)

This sheet is for when you "have something done".

To have something done means to have someone else do the work.

"I'm having my house painted!" says that I am NOT doing the painting, but someone else is doing it for me.

"I'm painting my house!" generally means that I AM DOING the painting myself.

\*Rewrite these sentences to say that someone else is doing the work:*

1. My car broke down and I took it to the shop so they could repair it.
My car broke down and I had it repaired.
2. Bob went to the eye doctor and she checked his eyes.
_____
3. I dropped my smartphone and took it to a shop so they could fix it.
_____
4. Gwen's husband hit her, so she called the police to arrest him for domestic violence.
_____
5. Susie's dress was too long, so she told a shop to shorten it.
_____
6. For my parent's 50th wedding anniversary, I got a shop to make a special cake.
_____
7. My food at the restaurant was a bit cold, so I asked them to heat it up.
_____
8. I was asking Julie to marry me, so I told the band to play a romantic song.
_____
9. I hired a carpenter and he added a 2nd floor to my house.
_____
10. *Kim is going to a fortune teller and she will tell Kim's fortune
_____
11. Ron got angry and yelled at a customer and she told his boss to fire him.
_____
12. Nancy didn't like the mole on her nose and told a doctor to remove it.
_____
13. My knives were dull and couldn't cut well, so I got a guy to sharpen them.
_____
14. The grass in my yard was too long, so I asked a young boy to cut it.
_____