I was MOST moved by….. (Answers)

In this case, there were many things you experienced, but one of them stood out, impressed, worried, etc. the most.

Here is one way to express this situation:
> There were many paintings at the museum, but the Mona Lisa moved me the most.

Here is how I want you to rewrite this sentence:
> There were many paintings at the museum, but the Mona Lisa was the painting I was most moved by.

Rewrite these sentences similar to the example above:

1. There were many speakers at the conference, but the speech about artificial intelligence impressed me the most.
   > There were many speakers at the conference, but the speech about artificial intelligence was the speech I was most moved by.

2. There are so many diseases in the world, but Ebola worries me the most. (instead of "by", use "about")
   > There are so many diseases in the world, but Ebola is the disease that I am most worried about.

3. I've seen many horror movies, but "Halloween 1" scared me the most.
   > I've seen many horror movies, but "Halloween 1" is the horror movie I was most scared by.

4. I've been embarrassed many times, but falling down on stage was the thing that embarrassed me the most.
   > I've been embarrassed many times, but falling down on stage was the thing that I was most embarrassed by/about.

5. I've met many famous people, but meeting President Obama is one person that I was excited the most to meet. (instead of "by", use "about")
   > I've met many famous people, but meeting President Obama is one person that I was most excited about.

6. Our team has lost many, many games, but losing the championship game disappointed me the most.
   > Our team has lost many, many games, but losing the championship game is the game I am most disappointed by.

7. I have seen many live musicals, but Phantom is the one that moved me the most.
   > I have seen many live musicals, but Phantom is the one that I was most moved by.