

Not Anything (2)

I didn't eat ANYTHING today! (2)

This expression is used to say that not any(thing, one, where, etc.) happened, was met, etc. when talking about some situation ex.) I was really busy and had no food today! (eat)

I didn't eat anything today!

Change the following sentences to say not anything/anyone/anywhere/ etc. as in the example:

1. I stayed home all weekend. (go)

2. There were no people I knew at the party. (know)

3. *I looked for the lost treasure, but found none of it. (find)

4. I went shopping, but only window shopped. (buy)

5. Sherry was too tired to cook last night.

6. Bill played bingo on Saturday, but didn't win any prizes.

7. I turned on the TV, but there were no good programs. (watch)

8. I talked to no people all weekend!

9. We went fishing but caught no fish!

10. The homeless man had no place to stay. (have)

11. I went to a game center, but I played none of the games.

12. A typhoon hit, so we went nowhere during our vacation.

13. Tina lived alone for 90 years and married no one. (marry)

14. *When arrested, the thief said he stole nothing and hurt no one.

