

Not ON Time -vs- Not IN Time (1)

This sheet deals with not being on time or in time for something

Not on time (to/for): Means you are late, but you can still do it.
Ellen got a flat tire and wasn't on time for her interview.

Not in time (to/for): Means you are too late and can't do it.
I got stuck in traffic and wasn't in time for my flight and had to buy a new ticket on a flight the next day!

Write not on time or not in time in the spaces to finish the sentences:

1. Work starts at 9:00 sharp! If you are _____, you will be fired!
2. There was a terrible accident and unfortunately the ambulance was _____ to save the victims.
3. I overslept and was _____ for my bus to work and had to wait 20 minutes for the next one, so I was _____ for work.
4. Jim forgot to set his alarm and was _____ for his wedding.
5. I was _____ for my last train and had to sleep on a park bench.
6. Ed was _____ for his science test, so the teacher gave him a 30 point penalty and said he will fail if he is _____ for the next test.
7. I worked late and was _____ to see my daughter's piano recital. She was very sad that I had missed it.
8. Fred loves Sue, and wanted to stop her from marrying Tom, but he was _____. When he got to the church, they were already wed.
9. The teacher was angry because all her students were _____ for class.
10. In the evening, the lines at Disneyland are so long that they start closing the lines to new people. We hurried, but unfortunately, we were _____ to join the Space Mountain line before it closed.
11. Don't be late filing your taxes! Do them by April 15th at midnight. If you are _____, they will charge you an extra $100!