

I SHOULD HAVE worn a coat!! (1)

When you say you should have done something, you didn't do it for some reason, but later you wish that you had done it.

Using this is: should have + p.p.verb

Rewrite these sentences using should have + p.p. Verb:

ex.) I didn't wear my coat because it was warm earlier. Now it's cold!

I should have worn a coat because it's cold now.

1. It was sunny earlier, so I didn't bring my umbrella, but it's raining now!

2. I forgot to get gas earlier. Now my car stopped on the highway!

3. I was busy today and didn't eat lunch. Now I'm starving!

4. I didn't ask for help when setting up my new PC. Now it's broken.

5. I wanted to be a doctor, but I didn't study enough while I was in school!

6. I wanted pizza, but ordered the pasta. It isn't very good....

7. I gambled on horse #5, but horse #11 won the race.

8. I didn't charge my iPhone last night and now it's dead!

9. I bought a cheap TV and it soon broke! (more expensive)

10. I didn't get an influenza shot earlier and now I have the flu!

11. I wish I had done my English homework because now I'm in trouble at school.

12. I didn't lock my car door when I ran into the store and someone stole it.

13. I love Julia and I never told her, and now she's marrying another guy!

14. I had a chance to invest in Bitcoin years ago, but I didn't. I'm so sad that I didn't because I'd be rich now.

15. I didn't get the COVID-19 vaccine, and I got corona. I was so sick.
