It was a bright _____ sunny day when I met this interesting man. He was a poor _____ guy living on the streets. He was _____, wearing only pants, and his _____ head was deeply tanned from days or even years in the sun, but his living area was absolutely _____. Cleaner than even my own apartment. He looked like he was starving, so I decided to share my lunch with him. First, I handed him a bunch of _____ grapes. I said I was a vegetarian, so my burger was a _____ veggie burger. He said it was totally _____ and tasted terrible, but he ate it anyway. Then he began to tell me his life story. His mom and dad had died, so he grew up as a _____ orphan. He clearly remembered seeing their _____ bodies during the funeral. He was so dizzy and felt like a _____ child floating through space. He really felt alone and _____ with no one to take care of him. It was then that he decided to become a _____ businessman, not caring who he hurt. He became greedier and greedier as his riches grew. But he was truly _____. He had no idea how bad he was to everyone. In the end, he lost everything and ended up on the streets. I learned a valuable lesson from him. It was a _____ experience talking to this very interesting man!!
