

To Verb -vs- Verbing (3 Test Answers)

Fill in the blanks below with to verb, verbing or to verb/verbing:

ex.1) The kids had fun spending the day at Disneyland. (spend) ex.2) Most people would be ok to have/having a female President. (have) ex.3) If you wish to join our gym, we'll give you a nice discount. (join)

1. If you are interested in giving up smoking, I'd be interested to help you. (give up/smoke/help)
2. Tom seems to love his new school. He has fun playing with his new friends after classes. (love/play)
3. Amy spent years studying in school to become a doctor. (study)
4. Jim is happy to donate/donating his time to charity. He never says no when asked to help out. (donate/help)
5. I can't believe they have succeeded in creating chicken meat without killing chickens! Soon you will be able to choose to order real chicken meat or lab-created chicken meat in restaurants. I don't think I'm ok to order/ordering meat grown in a lab. (create/order/eat)
6. Jill offered to let us go skiing with her this weekend. She also has a snowmobile that we can take turns using. (let/use)
7. Tuesday is her big interview, so Ann keeps practicing giving her speech over and over. Her goal is to get/getting the boss to choose to hire her for the job. (practice/give/get/hire)
8. It is ok to make/making mistakes in English. If you do, don't give up studying! Just keep trying. It should be fun to speak/speaking English, so relax. (make/study/try/speak)
9. We wish to invite you to our wedding in June. If you are free and interested in attending, please reply ASAP. (invite/attend)
10. Tom spent a lot of money preparing to run for mayor. If he succeeds in winning, his goal is to become/becoming the US President one day. (prepare/run/win/become)
11. The noisy people in the theater were kindly asked to leave. (leave)
12. I'd be happy to have/having foreign English-speaking neighbors. Then I could practice speaking English every day! (have/speak)
13. It takes about 15 hours to get to the resort, so Kim and I will take turns driving. It'll be fun to drive/driving together. (drive/drive)
14. Prices seem to increase every day! I'm interested to learn why! I might have to give up living here! (increase/learn/live)
15. Sue offered to sell me her old car if I wish to buy it. (sell/buy)