Susie's face turned whiter than a ghost's and she nearly fainted when (white) (near)

the scary looking man reached into the deep pocket of his long (scary) (deep) (long)

black coat. She honestly believed he was getting a long sharp (black) (honest) (long) (sharp)

knife or some huge gun. A terrified Susie didn't want to die on (huge) (terrified)

her beautiful wedding day. This was the most important day (beautiful) (important)

of her life! Her heart was quickly beating and she was getting (quick)

dizzier and dizzier. Suddenly, Susie loudly screamed at them, (dizzy) (dizzy) (loud)

“Don't kill us! Please! You can have my beautiful wedding (beautiful)

gown. It's extremely expensive !” Then she started quickly (extreme) (expensive) (quick)

taking off her gorgeous gown and quietly told her new husband (gorgeous) (quiet) (new)

to take off his fancy tuxedo. Susie nervously handed the clothes (fancy) (nervous)

to the shocked and surprised strangers, and they speedily rushed (shocked) (surprised) (speed)

off wearing only their underwear. Neither saw the mobile phone (mobile)

that the generous stranger was kindly offering them. They finally (generous) (kind) (final) stopped running after 15 long minutes. Unfortunately, just then (long) (Unfortunate)

it started raining heavily. Lightning brightly flashed and thunder (heavy) (bright)

loudly roared. Soon they were soaked and freezing. She was (loud) (soaked) (freezing)

the coldest ever. Luckily, the wedding party was not far away.
(cold) (Lucky)
