

TOEIC IV – Prepositions and Adverbs (2 Answers)

Fill in the blanks with the correct words:

ago                      for                      by                      at

1. When I moved to Japan 10 years ago, I knew nothing of the culture.
2. It's hard to save money at a time when the economy is so bad.
3. We were all really affected by the news of Tim's death.
4. The company was in the red and was sold for a fraction of its value.

until                      if                      to                      or

1. Art's late, so either he missed his bus or something bad happened.
2. Our boss wants to know if it's possible to finish the project today.
3. Mr. Kim is in LA on a business trip until this Friday.
4. The stuff I ordered on the net was delivered to the wrong address!

both                      either                      also                      neither

1. John is not only the CEO of a big company, but he also owns a pro sports team.
2. You must choose a health plan that's either full or partial coverage.
3. I am neither willing to sell my company, nor resign as CEO!
4. We need to pay both Federal tax and State tax in California.

with                      until                      at                      since

1. I didn't know being a parent was so hard until I became one.
2. During peak Christmas shopping time, I'm at work 14 hours a day.
3. She has been a doctor since she graduated from medical school.
4. This presentation is very important, so I'm sending Ben with you.

even though                      unless                      due to                      however

1. We're not going to save this company unless we make major changes.
2. ABC wants to expand their business even though they are losing money.
3. Joe wasn't really prepared to give a speech, however, he did his best.
4. Many shops are running in the red due to the economic recession.