TOEIC IV – Prepositions and Adverbs (4) Fill in the blanks with the correct words:

for	to	on	if
 Our client is counting us to create a new winning ad campaign. John was not qualified enough the job, so he didn't get it. Time is running out and we can't afford make any mistakes! Sue, there is anything I can do to help, don't hesitate to ask me.
Until	When	Without	Since
 you didn't complete all the classes, you can't graduate. entering Japanese houses, you must take off your shoes. we receive the new machine parts, we can't do any work. giving away any secrets, could you talk about the new phone?
finally	never	by	also
 Al is such a business genius that the time he was 30, he was rich. After hours of work, we were able to solve the tough problem. I'd like you to order new office curtains and some new artwork. I have seen a financial recession like we had back in 2008.
against	that	except	throughout
 He's a great actor and his career has never made a bad movie. Many residents are the city's plan to build a prison nearby. I loved everything about the movie for the strange ending. You will receive your financial aid money provided you have done all the proper paperwork.
therefore	among	so far	although
 We are still running in the red we are showing good sales. My lost passport was found some papers in the trash. We launched our new smartphone but sales are not so good

3. We launched our new smartphone, but ______ sales are not so good.

4. Mr. Z was not born in the US and _____ can not run for President.