TOEIC IV – Prepositions and Adverbs (4 Answers)

Fill in the blanks with the correct words:

for	to	on	if
 Our client is counting on us to create a new winning ad campaign. John was not qualified enough for the job, so he didn't get it. Time is running out and we can't afford to make any mistakes! Sue, if there is anything I can do to help, don't hesitate to ask me.
Until	When	Without	Since
 Since you didn't complete all the classes, you can't graduate. When entering Japanese houses, you must take off your shoes. Until we receive the new machine parts, we can't do any work. Without giving away any secrets, could you talk about the new phone?
finally	never	by	also
 Al is such a business genius that by the time he was 30, he was rich. After hours of work, we were finally able to solve the tough problem. I'd like you to order new office curtains and also some new artwork. I have never seen a financial recession like we had back in 2008.

against that except throughout

- 1. He's a great actor and throughout his career has never made a bad movie.
- 2. Many residents are against the city's plan to build a prison nearby.
- 3. I loved everything about the movie except for the strange ending.
- 4. You will receive your financial aid money provided that you have done all the proper paperwork.

therefore among so far although

- 1. We are still running in the red although we are showing good sales.
- 2. My lost passport was found among some papers in the trash.
- 3. We launched our new smartphone, but so far sales are not so good.
- 4. Mr. Z was not born in the US and therefore can not run for President.