

TOEIC IV – Prepositions and Adverbs Story (4 Answers)

Fill in the blanks with the correct words:

1. toward off both since

Honey, since you are going toward their school this morning, could you drop the kids off for me? I've got both an early meeting and a new staff interview and I don't have enough time to also take them to school. Thank you so much!

2. during while as to up

There have been some questions as to what the staff should do while the store is undergoing the renovations. Well, during this time, we are offering free management seminars to all staff who are interested in becoming managers. Don't pass up this great opportunity to learn what it takes to manage one of our stores.

3. therefore over despite by

It was found that over a 2-month period of running the new PC advertisement on TV, sales steadily increased day by day, but despite this increase, we're not making enough of a profit! So therefore, we need to come up with a stronger ad campaign!

4. each whereas although so

OK, so far in our team sales competition, the West team has sold 4 thousand machines, whereas the South and East teams have only sold 2 thousand each. Now, although you two teams are far behind the West, there's still time to catch up to them.

5. at into whether almost

It doesn't matter whether you are into politics or not, the 2020 US Presidential election caught the interest of almost every American. According to reports, at least 150 million American citizens came out to vote.
