

TOEIC IV – Prepositions and Adverbs Story (6 Answers)

Fill in the blanks with the correct words:

1.    yet                            throughout                            due to                            now

You've been stuck in the same position at AmTech throughout your career and have yet to get a promotion! But due to the fact that so many of your seniors are retiring this year, it's now or never for you to demand one from your bosses!

2.    moreover                            whether                            even though                            whatever

Even though Tom is the CEO's son, he should not be allowed to do whatever he wants! It doesn't matter whether we're busy or not, he comes in whenever he wants, and moreover, he leaves early to go play golf most days!

3.    almost                            if                            ahead                            besides

Professor Johnson's Hotel Management class is a real killer! You have difficult exams almost every week, and besides that, you have to give presentations every Friday. So if possible, you should try and do all of your work ahead of time to save you a lot of trouble.

4.    except                            regarding                            unless                            although

The next item up on the agenda is regarding our new line of energy drinks. Although we are doing a tremendous amount of advertising, sales are surprisingly slow everywhere except for Asia. We can't really continue this line of drinks unless sales dramatically increase in areas outside of Asia. Does anyone have any ideas?

5.    without                            despite                            nevertheless                            however

The team's star player is injured! Everyone thinks that they can't win Without him. Nevertheless, they are going to do their best to win. But despite their best efforts, they lost their first 10 games in a row. However, after a few changes, they started winning nearly every game and eventually made it to the playoffs!
