

TOEIC IV – Most Common Word Forms (Test 2 Answers)

Fill in the blanks with the correct words:

difference                  understanding                  increase                  justification

1. What's the difference between the new iPhone and the old one?
2. We've seen a sharp increase in sales since airing the commercial.
3. There is no justification for stealing money from this company!
4. All the trains have stopped. We are sorry for the inconvenience. We thank you for your understanding.

differently                  increasingly                  masterfully                  understandably

1. Businesses going bankrupt in this terrible economy are becoming increasingly common.
2. If I'd known the project would fail, I'd have done things differently.
3. Our boss is understandably angry. You should have finished by now!
4. It was amazing how the young chess player masterfully beat players over twice his age.

differentiate                  understand                  justify                  increase

1. As sales are so good, we are going to increase our staff to 50.
2. In the crowded smart phone market, companies are finding it hard to differentiate themselves from other phone makers.
3. Our stock holders can't understand how we can sell 5 million units, but still be losing money.
4. You have no job! How can you justify spending money now!

different                  understandable                  increasing                  masterful

1. Another hot cake shop opened up! They seem to be increasing every week.
2. We always eat the same thing for lunch. Let's try a different dish.
3. Your anger is understandable. You should have gotten the promotion!
4. It was masterful how the general of the smaller army was able to defeat the larger and much more powerful army of their enemy.