

I'm Having my house Painted!!

This sheet is for when you "have something done".

To have something done means to have someone else do the work.

"I'm having my house painted!" says that I am NOT doing the painting, but someone else is doing it for me.

"I'm painting my house!" generally means that I AM DOING the painting myself.

Rewrite these sentences to say that someone else is doing the work:

1. My car broke down and I took it to the shop to be repaired.
My car broke down and I had it repaired
2. Judy went to a hair salon and they cut her hair.

3. I took my daughter to a shop and they pierced her ears.

4. Cathy went to the dentist and he pulled out her wisdom teeth.

5. I went to a gas station and they washed my car.

6. Bob stopped at a stand and they shined his shoes.

7. Denise went to a plastic surgeon and he changed her nose.

8. Barb went to a nail salon and they did her nails.

9. Mark went to a tattoo parlor and they changed his old tattoo.

10. The family went to a photographer and he took their photos.

- 11.*Frank stole from the mafia and they paid someone to kill him.

12. We went to a famous artist and he drew our family portrait.

13. Sam and Sue used a service and they performed their wedding on a beach cliff in Hawaii.

