In case (2)

In case is often used in situations where something that is unexpected or unplanned might happen, so you want to be prepared.
(Just in case is when the unexpected thing is really not expected)

I brought an umbrella with me because it might rain later.
I brought an umbrella with me in case it rains later.

1. I left early to go to the meeting because there might be train trouble.
   _____

2. Mom packed some snacks because we might get hungry on the long drive.
   _____

3. I'll remind you with an email because you might forget about the party.
   _____

4. You should bring some mosquito spray 'cuz there might be mosquitoes!
   _____

5. Tina always carries bandages with her because she might cut herself.
   _____

6. We should leave early, as there might be traffic on the way to the airport.
   _____

7. Greg keeps extra clothes in his car because his might get dirty at work.
   _____

8. Mary hides a spare house key under her doormat 'cuz she might lose her key.
   _____

9. I'm allergic to bees, so I carry medicine 'cuz I might get stung by a bee.
   _____

10. Bring some sunscreen because the sun might be really strong at the beach.
    _____

11. I brought some DVDs to the cabin because they might not have wi-fi.
    _____

Your original examples:

_____
_____