

In case (1)

*In case is often used in situations where something that is unexpected or unplanned might happen, so you want to be prepared.
(Just in case is when the unexpected thing is really not expected)*

I brought an umbrella with me because it might rain later.

I brought an umbrella with me in case it rains later.

1. I keep important numbers in my bag because I might lose my phone one day.

2. You should take a jacket because it might get cold later tonight.

3. I'll give you my number because you might get lost coming to my house.

4. I keep extra money in my phone case because I might forget my wallet one day.

5. Schools practice earthquake drills because a big quake might hit one day.

6. People must have car insurance because they might get into a car accident.

7. Sue bought a wedding dress on sale now because she might get married one day.

8. Many trucks carry special tire chains for snow as it might snow suddenly.

9. I have an extra charger for my iPhone because the battery might die.

10. All cars have spare tires because they might get a flat tire one day.

11. I always back-up my files because my PC might suddenly crash one day.

Your original examples:
