

Including tip, it was quite cheap!

Including something means you are giving a total amount for a group/thing that has that something in it or not

9 people came to the party, including me. (8 people and me =9)

ex. 1) Party guests who came (9) ; with me (9)

Nine people came to the party, including me.

ex. 2) Party guests who came (9) ; *with John (10)

Nine people came to the party, not including John.

Complete the sentences using the bold numbers as the base compared to the other numbers for including something or not, as in the examples:

- TV ticket price ($1000) ; *amount I paid ($1100) with tax
The TV price was _____
- Days I've worked non-stop for (15) ; with today (15)
I've worked non-stop for _____
- Number of members in our family is (8) ; w/ the dog & cat (8)
The number of members _____
- The cruise ship fee is ($2500) ; with dinner ($2500), *with breakfast and lunch ($2700) (2 sentences) _____

- The restaurant bill was ($200) ; *with tip ($240)

- The TV show's (3hours, 15mins) ; *with commercials (4hours)

- The have (10 pairs of) Levi's jeans ; with these jeans (10)
I own _____
- My trip to NY (7 days) ; with travel time (7)

- (2) bags on the airplane ; *with carry-ons (3)
You can have _____
- One school term is (17 weeks) ; *with exams (18 weeks)

- Concert ticket price was ($130) ; with parking ($130)
The _____
- Move into my new apartment was ($4500) ; *with the movers ($5300)
The cost to _____